The Daily Standard. Thursday December 1, 1870. The Eastern Fishery Question.

The Reciprocity treaty between Canada and United States having been abrogated during the secession war, Congress enacted a number of restrictive and prohibitory laws that have operated very injuriously on the trade of Canada. The latter, however, after trying patiently year after year to restore commercial re-latives to their former condition, and without imposing any additional restric-tions on American fishermen who caught tions on American fishermen who caught and cured fish on the coasts of the Dominion, took a decided stand this year aginst the prohibitory policy of the United States. Not only was the Canadian tariff revised by imposing a higher duty on agreultural and other products of the States, dut the privilege by which American fisher men were allowed to catch, land and cure fish on the coasts of the provinces under a license was changed. Nothing apparently could be more just to Provincial fisherment than the change; for whilst American fishermen under a license could Confectioner, Fort Street. Particulars toand cure them on British soil, and carry them to the States duty free, yet his Provincial neighbor was unable to sell his fish in the American market without paying a heavy duty. The tendency of this unequal state of things between the fishermen of the two countries was to draw the Provincials into Annexation or at the very least to keep up a great deal of irritation. The vigorous policy of the Ottawa Cabinet has not only modified the political tendencies of the Provincials of the Maritime Provinces; but has revived the old ill feeling that existed in former years, when the New England fisherman were compelled to keep off shore or be seized by revenue cutters or Her Majesty's craisers. Restriction and Prohibition is a game that they find can be played on both sides of the line, and on the part of the Canadians to the great disadvantage of American fisherman. express their discontent, and bully Con-gress into to taking further retaliatory measures, the Cape Ann fisherman have sent a memorial to Congress. It states their case, and suggests their remedy, and is as follows: To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives in Congress assembled.

This memorial respectfully represents that This memorial respectfully represents that owing to the coercive principle adopted by the Dominion of Canada, whereby the treaty of 1818 is made the basis of arbitrary laws and regulations, the Fishing interests of the United States being the most vulnerable point, have been subjected to outrage, directed with a view to accomplish the following results: To obtain satisfaction for alleged Fenian raids.

To force the United States to renew the Reciprocity Treaty.

To drive American fishermen from their raters, thereby reducing the number of fishing vessels, weakening the marine power of the United States, and making a monopoly of the fishing business in the hands of the Canadians to supply our markets.

To this end they have captured American fishing vessels, broken up their voyages and confiscated their fares.

They have declared absolute non-intercourse with the fishermen of the United Or States, refusing the right to buy stores or supplies at any of their ports—driving them from their harbors where they had sought shelter-refusing the landing or bonding of American fish or mackerel for export to the United States. They have seized mackerel saved from vessels wrecked ion their coast, refused supplies to disabled vessels, and harassed the fishermen in a manner peculiar to British authority.

Your memorialists would therefore pray that a Non-Intercourse Act be passed similar in its effects to that of Canada, whereby the same treatment may be applied to all vessels hailing from the British provinces as that suffered y American fishermen.

Also for an Act prohibiting the importation of English or Canadian fish or mackerel, so long as American vessels are prohibited from taking fish or mackerel in so called

Also that transportation in bond of mer-chandise for Canada through American terri-teries be prohibited until Canadian ports are opened for transportation in bond of American fish, mackerel, or other merchandise to and from the United States.

Also that the United States demand fall and complete indemnity for vessels and car-goes captured, and for all detentions and outrages committed on fishing vessels and their crews by British armed vessels.

Woolen Factory.

It has always appeared strange that some one has pot started a woolen factory here. The subject has been mooted several times during the past twelve years, but for some unexplained reason, the proposal has never come to maturity. In Oregon there are several Woolen Factories, and, if we mistake not, there is one in Washington Territory. Here, however, with a population of 30,000 Indians, whose chief wealth consists in blankets, besides a white population of 10,000, we have not a single thread of woolen yarn spun or woven in the country. We have in the Colony all that is required for such an industry. We have an abundance of water to propel machin-ery; we have a country as well adapted for growing wool as any other on this Cheap, Great Reduction side of the continent; we grow even now enough wool to make as many or more blankets than can be consumed in the country; and the demand for blankets ne, without paying any attention to other branches of woolen manufactures, GELEBRATED PORK SAUSAGE is enough to pay one small factory very handsomely. With the propelling power, the wool, and the demand for woollens, we lack the enterprise and the money to start the factory. Our data on the cost of a small woolen mill and the running expenses are middled. and the running expenses are mislaid;
but we are persuaded from observations elsewhere that our consumption of blankets alone is sufficient to warrant the undertaking, at once I. St. Andrew's Dinner.

Last evening, at 8 o'clock, some fifty odd entlemen sat down to dinner at the Oriental Restourant. The dining hall was tastefully decorated with flags, and the table was spread with all the dainties and luxuries of the season, served up in White & Pagden's best style R. Wallace, Esq., President of the Society, presided, assisted by J. Orr. Leg., in the vice-chair. After the cloth had been removed, the chairman first proposed "The Queen," then "The Prince of Wales" and the other members of the Reyal Family, and then the "Army and Navy," all of which were drunk with the usual honors. with music by the band. Mr. Page replied on behalf of the "Army and Navy," and Mr. A. Young sang the "Red, White, and Blue." The chairman next proposed "The Governor and Legislative Council," which was responded to by H. Nathan, Esq., Mr. DeCosmos, and Mr. Robson. Mr. Burns next gave a song. Mr. J Muirhead then proposed "The Mayor and Council," which was responded to by Councillor Russell. Mr. Finlayson proposed "The Clergy," which was rethe Rev Mr. McGregor. Mr. A McLean proposed "The Lant o' Cakes;" responded to by J. Orr, Esq. Mr. Grant proposed "The Land we Live in;" responded to by R. Wallace, Esq. H. Nathan, Ksq., proposed "The St. Andrew and Caledonia Society;" responded to by Mr. J. Hutcheson. The vicechair proposed " The Day and all who Honor replied to by Rev. Mr. McGregor. Mr. A. B. Grey proposed "The Press;" which was responded to by Mr. Robson and Mr. DeCosmos, Mr. J. Burns proposed "The Ladies," which was replied to by Mr. McKenzie Several volunteer toasts were offered by R. Wallace, Esq.; first, "The Pioneers of British Columbia," associated with the name of James Douglas, Jr. Mr. Douglas responded in a brief and pertinent speech. "Comreplied to by Mr. Brodie, of the house of Findiay, Durham & Brodie. Mr. DeCosmos was asked by the chair to propose "The Rose, the Shamrock, and the Thistle." Mr. DeCosmos complied. The speeches were spicy, and the toasts were drank with all the ors, interlivened with music and songs. the regular toasts were given, the guests kept up the convivialities to a late hour. Every one appeared pleased with mine hots, Messrs. White & Pagden. Messrs Palmer, Bushell and Haynes also contributed much to the pleasure of the evening, with their excellent music. To the Committee of Arrangements great credit is due for the sucessof the dianer. From the statements of the Chair the Society appear to be in a very flourishing condition. The late hour at which the guests seperated prevents us from giving even a synopsis of the speeches. A letter was read from Sir James Douglas, apologising for not being present; but he sent a do-nation of $10, and said that his son would

Good News FROM OMINECA .- By the arrival concluded to remain here. of the steamer Enterprise from New Westgives us the following news, which can be relied upon :- The creek is about 15 miles in length, and takes its rise in a lake and flows into the Omineca ri.er. it has been prospected for about 11 miles, by Fred black and other miners, who found gold all the way. The claims that have been properly worked this year will last for some time yet. All the men who worked there took out money, and its richness is fully confirmed. As high as $10 per day had been offered to men, but they refused to work for wages. Provisions are very high. The following are the prices: Flour, $1 per lb; bacon, $1 50; sugar, $1 25; b ans, $1 25; b ef, 50 cents, and everything else in proportion. The dig-gings are shallow, ranging from five to tenleet. The average pay was from I ounce to $80 per, day, to the hand. Just before our informant left, work was discontinued, on account of the frost and snow. On the last wash-up, bot stones had to be used in the sluice-boxes. There are 100 white men and 15 Chinamen left on the creek, most of whom intend to winter there. The travelling was very good from the creek to the mouth of Questielle, the greatest depth of snow enthe miners we have seen from there spenk in the most glowing terms of the mines. A COWARDLY ACT .- Last evening, about o clock, a party of boys were standing outside the Oriental Restaurant, on Yates street, when a drunken man came along and caught one of them (Henry Davies, son of J. P. Davies) and pitched him head-first through the glass door. The boy was severely cut about the head and face. He was taken to the Bank Exchange, where, fortunately, Dr. Riems, lately of Seattle, was, who kindly sewed up the wounds in a very neat manner, which were of a dangerous character. One of them, on the temple, was about three inches long and one in depth. STANDARD:—Through the medium of your paper I want to state the very great good that has been done me by Dr. Ching Fun of this city, nxet door Kwong Lee & Co. For 24 years I suffered with neuralgia on the brain, which baffled the skull of three first-class American physicians. Latterly bronshitis attacked my right lung, and my eyes became awfully inflamed. Despairing of ever being cured I placed myself as a last resort in the hands of Dr. (hing Fun, and after five months treatment I am a well man and feel that I cannot sound the emineut Chinese gentleman's praises too loudly, so that all my countrymen similarly affected may visit him and find relief, Respectfully,
